A Responsibility Questionnaire

Read the sentences below. Determine how often you do the activity described in the sentence - often, sometimes, rarely - and record your answer. There are NO wrong answers! When you are done, add the total of your points to see how strong your responsibility skills are.

Showing Responsibility	Often	Sometimes	Rarely
1. I get plenty of sleep on school nights.
2. I finish my school work.
3. I play safely with my hands, feet, and body.
4. I follow classroom rules.
5. I own up to my mistakes.
6. I clean up after myself.
7. I bring my backpack to school every day.
8. I turn lights off that I don't need on.
9. I ask for help when I need it.
10. I make positive and healthy choices.

I have _____ thumbs up. If you scored...

1-4 thumbs up: You show responsibility a little, but could work to show more. Think about how you could work on your positive decision making skills.

5-7 thumbs up: You show a good bit of responsibility, but there is still a little room to grow your respect skills. Try creating reminders and to-do lists to help you keep on top of your responsibilities.

8-10 thumbs up: You show so much responsibility!
Keep it up!
